

There is no word "CHRISTIAN" in the original Scriptures:

Please read:

Acts 11:26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the assembly, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Messianics first in Antioch.

Acts 26:28 Then Agrippa said unto Shaul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Messianic.

1.Peter 4:16 Yet if any man suffer as a Messianic, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify Elohim on this behalf.

The original name of our saviour is : Yahshua Ha Meshiach.

The word "Christian" came from Greek background not from Jerusalem.

From where the word : "Christian" has come?

There is no use of Christian in the entire New Testament except in three places. But if you go through the Sacred Name Bibles, you can get it's real meaning and why that word was used. It was used by Romans in a derogatory sense.

No where in Apostles Shaul's letters or any other letter written by apostles were addressed by Christians but saints and brethren in all those places.

So called Christian preachers used to say that the first church was started with 3000 on the day of Pentecost (Sunday). It is 100% wrong. So the people there were Jews and Israelites. They were Messianic Jews [Jews that believed Yahshua as their Messsiah]. They were not called Christians. Like that if you can keep on reading the word of YHWH in Acts, till the Gentiles were also believed the same Gospel (Acts 8:5-17, 10:44-48) and filled with the same Holy Spirit no one were called as Christians.

Mainly There Were Two Groups:

1. Messianic Jews: [Jews that believed Yahshua as their Messiah.]

2. Messianic Gentiles: [Gentiles that believed Yahshua as their Messiah.]

They both worshiped Elohim in one synagogue only. There is no question of Church to them in 1st century.

Acts 13:42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

Acts 13:44 And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of Elohim.

1 Restoration Scriptures: Acts 11:26 The term is “ Christian “ as it appears in both the Greek and Aramaic versions. This was a derogatory term, as those at Antioch made fun of the “ little moshiachs “. The fact that the Aramaic preserves this term through transliteration from the Greek and not translation, is further evidence that this was a title assigned “ by men to men “, and never by YHWH.

For when YHWH speaks, such as in Galatians 6:16, or through the use of ekklessia, all believers in Yahshua are called and known as Yisrael. If one called “Christian”, it is man’s terminology. If one is called Yisrael, he has adopted YHWH’s terminology and view point.

2 The book of Yahweh: Acts 11:26 The word Christian comes from the Latin word Christianos, and was contemptuously given by the Romans to the believers in The House of Yahweh. The believers would never have accepted a Latin title; neither would they have referred to the Messiah “Christos”. The term Christian is mentioned only three times in the Holy Scriptures

{ Acts 11:26, Acts 26:28 and 1.Kepha 4:16) and each time it is used in a contemptuous manner. Since the term Christian was a term of contempt, the followers of Yahweh through Yahshua Messiah would never have addressed each other by such an insulting term. Instead, they identified themselves as the Saints, the Believers, or the Brethren associated with the house of Yahweh. Biblico – Theological Lexicon of New Testament Greek by Hermann Cremer. 3 Holy Bible [The King James Study Bible] Acts 11:26 Acts 11:26 The believers were called Christians first in Antioch. The name Christian was at first a derogatory term, referring to the people of the Christ. Obviously the Antiochenes, constantly hearing the name of Christ, name these people such. The Jews would never label them as Christians, because that would be tantamount to saying that these were the people of the Messiah. The term Christian occurs in two other biblical passages Acts 26:28; 1.Peter 4:16.
