

What is meant by Baptism and in which name?

Repentance is the first step for salvation. Baptism is the second step for salvation. One should confess his sins and take baptism for salvation:

“Baptism” means immerse or dip in the water. “RENTIDZO” means Sprinkling. The people who took baptism in the sacred Scriptures had been immersed in the water. They did not sprinkle when they were babies. Baptism is for the repented people and not for the sinless babies. There is no proof for sprinkling baptism in Scriptures. Sprinkling baptism is a manmade doctrine (Mat 15:9). It has no right to enter into the kingdom of Yahweh. Rebelling against immersion is rejecting the counsel of Yahweh (Luke 7:30). Shall we go and see very clearly what the scripture sayith about baptism?

Baptism means to dip/immerse in the water	Sprinkling
